BOYS & GIRLS CLUB IN BUENA PARK OFFERING FREE BASKETBALL SKILLS CLINICS
Youth activity club works together with local law enforcement

BUENA PARK, Calif. — In community partnership with the Buena Park Police Department and the North Orange County Public Safety Task Force, the Boys & Girls Club in Buena Park (7758 Knott Ave) will have FREE Basketball Skills Clinics on the following dates:

April 7th, May 19th, June 9th 2018, from 10am-11:30am.

- Skills Clinics are for youth/teens grades 1st -8th grade only.
- A 2018 Membership is required but is only $10 if they mention this ad.

The Clinics are a great way for youth and teens (grades 1st -8th) to learn and improve their basketball skills. Classes are designed for beginning, intermediate and advanced players.

The Boys and Girls Club of Buena Park has worked together with the Buena Park Police Department and with the recently formed North Orange County Public Safety Task Force in order to foster positive community relations with local residents.

For additional information, or to register for the clinics, please visit the club website at www.theplaceforkids.org, or call Todd Traut at the club, 714-522-7259.
